Celebrating the Lake and Sacred Waters

On Saturday September 9th (rain date September 16) from 9 am to 3 pm, join a group of spiritual and scientific leaders at Shelburne Bay Park for a day of celebration and connection to Lake Champlain and the waters that feed it. The day begins with an hour of yoga on the shore of Shelburne Bay or just arrive, sip your coffee, and enjoy the view. The group gathers at 10:00 am for a welcome of introductions and invocations and will include Fred Moser. This will be followed by opportunities to row a long boat, paddle a canoe up the La Platte, explore nature trails, create collective art, and more. The educational and sacred activities will be guided by faith leaders, field naturalists, educators, artists, and other talented souls. You must register in advance which you can do at <http://echovermont.org/viewevent.html?event=1304>. Join a group of spiritual and scientific peers in this day of contemplating and celebrating our lake!

Space for Grace

Space for Grace for adult formation will resume on this Sunday, September 10, with a presentation about our new Trinity Episcopal Church website. We will take an overview of the site, and look especially at using the various tabs to access many helpful aids and guides to our parish, wider church, and spiritual life and Christian living as Episcopalians today. Please join us 9:45 – 10:15. Space for Grace programs take place Sunday mornings between the 8:00 and 10:30 services.

Annual Parish Picnic this Sunday

Please come to our annual picnic, rain or shine, we will be eating in the McClure Room immediately following the second service. Bring a side dish or dessert to share, and children's lawn games if you can. We were unable to reserve children's entertainment in time this year, but we have made next year's reservation already!

A Bowl of Rice & A Glass of Cool Water

Darcy Jewett will be hosting her annual Benefit Dinner of a Bowl of Rice and a glass of cool water on Sunday, September 17 at 6:00 p.m. at her home: 241 Spinnaker Lane, Shelburne. Help raise money for a well and water pump In Mozambique through World Vision/Women of Vision. For more information please contact Darcy at 985-2067 or search <https://www.worldvisionphilanthropy.org/water>

Shelburne Food Shelf

The Shelburne Food Shelf's annual meeting is September 20 from 6 to 7:30 pm. Please come learn about the exciting program put in place this year and ideas for the future. There will be a simple meal and the presentation of the Val Martel Award to Sue Schaeffer of the Shelburne Community School. Please RSVP at shelburnefoodshelf.org by clicking on the banner at the top of the home page.

Bookshop Reminder

Please remember, you can order any book you might be interested in reading whether it is of a religious nature or general fiction/non-fiction. The Bookshop belongs to Trinity, and your purchases help support educational ministry in our parish community. It also supports our ability to provide more outreach to the community of quality Christian and religious materials. Our Bookshop also has a lovely selection of beautiful greeting cards for many occasions. The Bookshop is open every Tuesday and Thursday 12-4, Saturdays 10-2, and the first Sunday morning each month.

Children's Books at our Bookshop

Our Trinity Bookshop has many wonderful books for children, and our store Manager, Jenny Ogelby, is very knowledgeable about books and other resources for children's religious education. Please come and speak with Jenny Ogelby about any resource you may be seeking.

Jenny's weekly suggestion for children's book:

"Tomie dePaola's Book of Bible Stories" is a timeless collection of Old and New Testament Bible Stories lovingly illustrated by award-winning artist Tomie dePaola. The text for the Bible Stories comes from the New International Version of the Bible. Hopkins carries the paperback version of this book for $12.99. The hard cover version is available for $27.99...Hopkins would be glad to order the hard cover book for you.

This is a beautiful collection of Bible stories, perfect for the entire family.

Some Important Books to Read:

The theme of our upcoming Diocesan Convention (Nov. 3-4) is "Declare Dignity," a theme deeply related to our current struggle to come to grips with racism in America. Bishop Ely recommends these books, which are available right here in our own Trinity Bookshop:

Dignity, by Donna Hicks

Tears We Cannot Stop, by Michael Eric Dyson

Waking Up White, by Debbie Irving

America's Original Sin, by Jim Wallis

Living into God's Dream: dismantling racism in America, edited by Catherine Meeks

End of Life Journey ... Choices, Challenges, Conversations

B.O.A.T.I.N.G. (Before Offering Another Treatment Indicate New Goals) First of four events.

Live Performance Sunday September 17th, 12:00 and 4:00 pm at Shelburne United Methodist Church, 30 Church St. 985-3981. Local actors perform this powerful one-act play that provides insight into the benefits and burdens of treatment at the end of life, speaking to everyone on a deeply personal level about a subject that has or will impact each of us. It is authored by Jill Bixby, a nurse practitioner in collaboration with Carol Schoneberg, an end-of-life educator with Hospice of Southern Maine.

The following events will be September 24th, October 1st and October 8th. These events are FREE, choose to attend any or all of the series offerings. The series is made possible by a SCHIP grant, the Trinity Episcopal Church and the Shelburne United Methodist Church.

Building Bridges with Friend Families

A “Building Bridges” event on Sunday Sept. 27, at 12:00 noon at the Intervale Center, seeks to pair individuals and families of the Burlington area with other area families, to become friends with over the coming year. The hope of the event is to bring people from a variety of cultural backgrounds together, and encourage greater intercultural understanding through ongoing relationships. Tours of the New Americans’ Intervale Gardens will be offered at the event. All are welcome. The Intervale Center is located at 180 Intervale Rd., Burlington, VT 05401; 802:660-0440.

Grand Piano Gift

Trinity has been gifted a beautiful baby grand piano by Nancy and Charlie Roff of Williston, long-time Episcopalians active in our Diocese and their home church of St. James, Essex Junction. The Roffs are moving to a new home out of state, and although they have been members of St. James they have given their piano here at Trinity in hopes that we will do some musical and liturgical ministries together with St. James and other nearby congregations. The piano is situated in our Webb Lounge, and it is important that it not be moved from where it has been positioned in the Lounge; it has been positioned for optimal acoustical effect and best maintenance of its tuning. Please do not move the piano.

The piano is also locked to prevent damage. However, if you are a pianist and would like to play the piano, please ask for the key.

New Trinity Website

On our new Trinity Episcopal Church website, look especially under the “Resources” tab for links to a wealth of aides and guides to contemporary spiritual life. Find links about the Episcopal Church in Vermont and beyond, the Lectionary Page (where each Sunday’s readings and collect can be found), an online Bible and the online Book of Common Prayer, interfaith resources, and many others. www.trinityshelburne.org
