 We repent of the evil that enslaves us,

 Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love and serve only your will. Amen.

In his hand are the caverns of the earth, *
and the heights of the hills are his also.
The sea is his, for he made it, *
and his hands have molded the dry land.

Come, let us bow down, and bend the knee, *
and kneel before the Lord our Maker.
For he is our God,
and we are the people of his pasture and the sheep of his hand. *
Oh, that today you would hearken to his voice

People O come let us worship.

to all who call upon him faithfully.
- 20 He fulfills the desire of those who fear him; *
he hears their cry and helps them.

First Reading: Isaiah 55:1-5

Sue Carter

Reader: A Reading from the book of Isaiah

Ho, everyone who thirsts, come to the waters; and you that have no money, come, buy and eat! Come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. Why do you spend your money for that which is not bread, and your labor for that which does not satisfy? Listen carefully to me, and eat what is good, and delight yourselves in rich food. Incline your ear, and come to me; listen, so that you may live. I will make with you an everlasting covenant, my steadfast, sure love for David. See, I made him a witness to the peoples, a leader and commander for the peoples. See, you shall call nations that you do not know, and nations that do not know you shall run to you, because of the LORD your God, the Holy One of Israel, for he has glorified you.

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

A Song of Jerusalem Our Mother

Isaiah 66:10-14

Rejoice with Jerusalem and be glad for her *
all you who love her, Rejoice, rejoice with her, *
all you who mourn over her,
That you may drink deeply with delight *
from her comforting breast.
For thus says our God, *
"I will extend peace to her like a river,
the wealth of nations like an overflowing stream.
"You shall nurse and be carried on her arm,
and you shall nestle in her lap.
"As a mother comforts her child, so will I comfort you; *
you shall be comforted in Jerusalem.
"You shall see, and your heart shall rejoice, *
you shall flourish like the grass of the fields."

Second Reading: Romans 9:1-5

Mike Wilson

Reader: A Reading from Paul's Letter to the Church in Rome

I am speaking the truth in Christ-- I am not lying; my conscience confirms it by the Holy Spirit-- I have great sorrow and unceasing anguish in my heart. For I could wish that I myself were accursed and cut off from Christ for the sake of my own people, my kindred according to the flesh. They are Israelites, and to them belong the adoption, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the law, the worship, and the promises; to them belong the patriarchs, and from them, according to the flesh, comes the Messiah, who is over all, God blessed forever. Amen.

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

A Song of Our Adoption Ephesians 1:3-10

Blessed are you, the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, * for you have blessed us in Christ
with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places.
Before the world was made, you chose us to be yours in Christ, *
that we should be holy and blameless before you.
You destined us for adoption as your children through Jesus Christ,* according to the good pleasure of your will,
To the praise of your glorious grace, *
that you have freely given us in the Beloved.
In you, we have redemption through the blood of Christ, the forgiveness of our sins,
According to the riches of your grace * which you have lavished upon us.
You have made known to us, in all wisdom and insight, *
the mystery of your will,
According to your good pleasure which you set forth in Christ, *
as a plan for the fullness of time,
To gather together all things in Christ, *
things in heaven and things on earth.

The Gospel: Matthew 14:13-21

Reader: A reading from the Gospel according to Matthew

Jesus withdrew in a boat to a deserted place by himself. But when the crowds heard it, they followed him on foot from the towns. When he went ashore, he saw a great crowd; and he had compassion for them and cured their sick. When it was evening, the disciples came to him and said, "This is a deserted place, and the hour is now late; send the crowds away so that they may go into the villages and buy food for themselves." Jesus said to them, "They need not go away; you give them something to eat." They replied, "We have nothing here but five loaves and two fish." And he said, "Bring them here to me." Then he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass. Taking the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven, and blessed and broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds. And all ate and were filled; and they took up what was left over of the broken pieces, twelve baskets full. And those who ate were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

A period of silence is kept.

The Apostles' Creed

Officiant and People together, standing as able

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth;

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord.
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit
born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;

he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
He is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

Guide me, O thou great Jehovah

Hymnal 690

The musical score is written for a four-part choir (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. It consists of two systems of staves. The first system contains the first three lines of the hymn, and the second system contains the last three lines. The lyrics are printed below the vocal staves, with each line of music corresponding to a line of text. The melody is simple and hymn-like, with a steady rhythm. The bass line provides a harmonic foundation with sustained notes and simple movements.

A Note on Today's Readings

The Tenth Sunday after Pentecost – Proper 13, the Sunday closest to August 2, Year A

Welcome to our parish. Throughout the Bible, God uses food as a means of calling the people together and of revealing the divine Presence to them. Today we have Matthew's account of the feeding of the 5,000. For early Christians, this account's importance lay not so much in its miraculous multiplying of the loaves and fishes as in its resemblance to the Eucharist, one of their ways (and ours) of experiencing Jesus' continuing presence in their midst.

In the first reading, the prophet Isaiah brings a vision of God's renewed relationship with the people. This vision uses a common Old Testament image for that relationship, as God calls all people to eat and drink in fellowship with God and each other.

Having reached the conclusion of his discussion of the glory of God's grace, Paul now tries to deal with the fact that some Jews have not accepted Jesus as the Messiah. Nevertheless, God's promises to them remain.

Religious meals are one of the universal expressions of human religion. All the insights of God's long love affair with humanity are summed up in these meals. Given deeper and fuller meaning by the Passover of Israel, and finally used by Jesus to interpret the meaning of his death and resurrection, the Eucharist became for Christians a full and complete revelation of God's love.
